

The Consumer Bankers Association is challenging the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law to impose the federal definition of an "established business relationship" in Indiana. This would weaken our privacy policy and open up consumers to more unwanted calls. I am opposed to the CBA action. Deny their petition.